Statement to Media

Fusion Security Inc. is reviewing the information released today by Pivot Legal Society regarding the Human Rights Complaints and Small Claims statements made on behalf of three individuals with respect alleged treatment while at Harbour Centre Complex.

As the allegations in both incidents are before the BC Human Rights Tribunal and Small Claims Court, Fusion Security has been advised to not comment on the substance of the information filed.

We note that in the Pivot Legal Society claim regarding the incidents on October 28, 2010 and December 24, 2010, the 'Police were called and attended the scene' and subsequently 'Vancouver Police Department officers proceeded to interview all parties' and after investigating both incidents 'no charges were laid' or recommended by the police.

At Fusion Security Ltd. we take pride in providing our clients and their tenants with a safe and secure environment to conduct day to day activities and business within. To this end we work closely with our clients, the community and law enforcement and will continue to do so.
